Guest Review: October 2010

What a wonderful stay we both had. Janet and I arrived ready for a cuppa and what a thoughtful surprise awaited us in the form of a lovely cake, not forgetting to mention your lovely welcome.

The twin room is fabulous, lovely decor, bedding and cushions. The en-suite came with a proper walk in shower, together with flannels, soaps, shampoos, conditioners etc and to top that, we had a luxurious bathrobe each. We enjoyed the residents' pantry and reading the information provided. It is the first time that I have had kit-kats and more provided with the room tea tray. What a find.

Dinner was delicious - all three courses and topped off by coffee and some of Pat's homemade truffles and fudge! We loved Phil's little stories about the area and the building. Attention to detail at the table was outstanding and everywhere so clean and fresh. We couldn't believe our luck as we settled into our comfortable and cosy beds for a good night's sleep. And it was.

A full English just couldn't be managed the next day, so we opted for pancakes with fresh fruit and yoghurt, followed by toast and preserves! Yes, that was a light breakfast but nonetheless very tasty. We were unhurried with our departure and we cannot wait to return to your beautiful place.

Thank you for offering the service that you both do so well. It is clear to see that a lot of love, thought and planning has been contributed by yourselves towards making this venture the success that it is.

We look forward to seeing you as soon as possible!
